

BY THE Lord Deputy
AND COUNCIL, A

CAPELL,

WHEREAS His Majesty hath Received Information, upon Oath, That the Persons herein after Named, have with Divers other wicked and malicious Persons, Entered into a wicked and detestable Conspiracy, to Assassinate and Murder His Majesty's Sacred Person: And whereas His Majesty hath therefore thought fit (by Advice of his Privy Council in England) to Give this Royal Proclamation, thereby Commanding and Requiring all his Loving Subjects to Discover, Take and Apprehend the Persons hereafter Named, vizt. James Duke of Berwick, Sir George Barclay, Major Lowick, George Porter, Captain Stow, Capt. Walbank, Capt. James Courtney, Lieutenant Sherburne, Brice Blaire, Dinant, Chambers, Boyse, George Higgins, and his two Brothers, Sons to Sir Thomas Higgins, Davis, Cardell Goodman, Cramburne, Keyes, Pendergoss, alias Prendergrafs, Bryerly, Trevor, Sir George Maxwell, Durance a Fleming, Christopher Knightley, Lieutenant King, Holmes, Sir William Perkins, Blackwood, And so much as it may be suspected that several of the said Persons, for the Avoiding of that Justice that may be Due to their horrid and base Villanies, have withdrawn themselves, and fled into this Kingdom, Now We the Lord Deputy (by Advice of the Privy Council) therefore to the Intent that such of the said Persons who now are, or at any time hereafter shall be in this Kingdom, may be Apprehended and brought to Justice,

4 March 1695/6

Justice, Do Require and Command all Officers as well Civil as Military, and all other Persons, to Apprehend and Secure the several Persons above-named, and the said Persons to carry before some of his Majesties Justices of the Peace, that he or they so Apprehended may be proceeded against accordingly. And We Do hereby further Declare, That all Persons who shall be aiding or otherwise be Aiding or Assisting to such Persons, either in concealing or furthering their Escape, shall be proceeded against with the utmost severity of Law. And for the Encouragement of all Persons to discover the said Persons, or any of them, We do hereby further Declare, that whosoever shall Discover and Apprehend the Persons abovenamed, or any of them, and shall bring them before some Justice of Peace, as aforesaid, shall have and receive, as a Reward, the Summ of One Thousand Pounds, which said Summ of One Thousand Pounds the Receiver-General of his Majesties Revenue in this Kingdom is hereby Directed and Required to pay accordingly. And if any of the Persons above-named shall Discover and Apprehend any of their Accomplices, so that they may be brought to Justice, Every such person making such Discovery shall have his Majesties Gracious Pardon, and shall receive the Reward of one Thousand pounds, to be paid in such manner as aforesaid. And to the End that none of the said persons may Escape, or be Transported in any Ships or Vessels out of this Kingdom, We Do hereby strictly Charge and Require all his Majesties Officers of his Customs, in all and Every Ports, Creeks and Harbours of this Kingdom, that they do not permit or suffer any Ship or Vessel whatsoever to be Discharged, or Sail from any of the said places without making diligent Search in such Ships and Vessels, for Discovering all suspected persons: And if any such they find, they are to Cause them to be Apprehended and Carried before some Justice of Peace, to the End they may be Secured untill We be Informed thereof, that such proceedings may be had against them as to Justice shall appertain. And the said Officers shall nevertheless not suffer any Ship to Depart from any the said Ports or places untill the said Vessel shall before some Justice of Peace make Oath of the Names of all the persons who are or shall be on Board the said Ship or Vessel and that they are all Seamen, and in pay as Seamen for the said Ship or Vessel, for that intended Voyage, Except such persons as shall produce a License from Us the Lord Admirall. And We further hereby strictly Charge and Require all the said Officers, that upon Return of any Ship or Vessel into any of the Ports or places aforesaid, they do Examine all Passengers who shall come on board the said Ship or Vessel, and if any of them as shall not produce a Pass under the said Admirall's Signet, they Apprehend and Carry them before some Justice of Peace, to the End they may be Secured untill the said Officer, or Justice of Peace do send an Account of their Names, and other Circumstances relating unto their coming into this Kingdom, and shall Receive Our further Directions therein.
